Dear FOIA Officer:

Under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. subsection 552, I am requesting access to the complete list of invitees and attendees at the CNO change of command ceremony of April 24, 1994, as more fully described in the following paragraph:

On April 24, 1994 there occurred at the U.S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, a change of command ceremony wherein ADM Frank Kelso was relieved of command as Chief of Naval Operations and his successor was sworn in. In connection with this ceremony a "Change of Command" book was assembled under the direction of protocol officers. This large book, said to have a black binding, contained, among other things, what is requested here: a complete list of all invitees and attendees for the April 24, 1994 CNO change of command ceremony, including individuals, their spouses, and the invitees' guests. I am not necessarily requesting detailed street addresses for each person on the list. If redaction is necessary, the person's name and city or state (as of that time) will suffice, unless supplying the complete address is simpler for you.

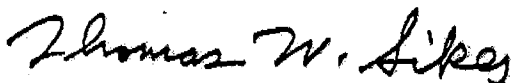

The materials responsive to this request should be located among the files of the Office of the Chief of Naval Operations. Alternate possibilities include the Naval Historical Center and the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis.

Please supply the records without informing me of the cost if fees do not exceed $200, which I agree to pay.

If you deny all or any part of this request, please cite each specific exemption you think justifies your refusal to release the information, and notify me of appeal procedures available under law.

If you have any questions about handling this request, feel free to email me at:

Dear FOIA Officer:

Under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. subsection 552, I am requesting access to "Several memorandum notes, business cards, laminated cards containing telephone numbers, and a six page handwritten document which appear to be notes relating to official business" obtained from the back seat area of the Chief of Naval Operations' official vehicle on May 16, 1996. These items "were seized and entered into the NCISFO evidence custody locker under NCIS log #148-96."

Also requested is "exhibit (36)" (which is the result of the [NCIS] vehicle inventory, if different from the above), as that exhibit is designated in paragraph 18 of NCIS (Interim) Report of Investigation dated July 9, 1996; Control: 16MAY96-DCWA-0278-7HRR.

I am requesting un-redacted copies of the foregoing, on the basis that the passage of more than 15 years has attenuated any interest the government might have in withholding elements within the subject materials.

Please supply the records without informing me of the cost if fees do not exceed $200, which I agree to pay.

If you deny all or any part of this request, please cite each specific exemption you think justifies your refusal to release the information, and notify me of appeal procedures available under law.

If you have any questions about handling this request, feel free to email me at:

I declare under penalty of perjury of the laws of the United States that the foregoing is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

If someone determines on behalf of the Navy that these records seized and entered into evidence by NCIS are not NCIS records, please advise what person made that determination, and please advise what Navy agency is considered to be the owner of those records. Thanks for your help.

CASE SUMMARY

1. Investigation was initiated on 16May96, following receipt of information at approximately 1400 from Naval District Washington (NDW), Police that V/BOORDA had been found lying on his back in a grassy area on the grounds of his residence (Quarters A/Tingey House, east lawn area, Washington Navy Yard), suffering from a gunshot wound. Upon arrival at the scene minutes later, Metropolitan Police Department Washington, DC, (MPDC) personnel had secured the scene and V/BOORDA was enroute to DC General Hospital (DCGH). V/BOORDA reportedly suffered a single gun shot entrance wound to the middle of his chest. At the scene, it was agreed that MPDC would be the lead investigative agency. Naval District Washington Fire Department (NDWFD) personnel reportedly attempted to resuscitate V/BOORDA by performing CPR at the scene prior to transporting him. Subsequently, V/BOORDA was pronounced dead at DCGH at approximately 1430 by the head of the Trauma Department. MPDC swabbed V/BOORDA's hands via the use of nitric acid swabs. Medical personnel confirmed the gunshot wound to V/BOORDA's chest resulted in an exit wound on his back. Detective [REDACTED] Homicide Branch, provided corresponding MPDC Reports for distribution and a Washington, DC, Fire Department (DCFD) report which are attached as exhibits (1) through (13).

2. On 16May96, a death scene search of the East lawn area and vicinity was conducted. A Smith & Wesson .38' caliber five shot revolver, model 649, serial #AYV2602 was recovered near V/BOORDA's feet, loaded with four live rounds of .38 Special cartridges, Winchester brand, and one cartridge case/shell under the hammer was recovered. On 17May96, NCISFO Washington, DC, Crime Scene Response Team and Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Special Search Team, Quantico, VA, continued the search for the spent round of ammunition. On 17May96, a lead bullet was found in the East lawn area which was subsequently seized by MPDC. A results of Death Scene Examination with appropriate MPDC reports to include a sketch of the area, and condition of the cylinder of the revolver is appended as exhibit (14). On 17May96, video coverage of the scene was conducted by Participating Agent (PA) [REDACTED] NCISFO Washington, DC. The original 8mm tape was placed into the NCISFO Washington, DC, evidence custody locker under NCIS log #155-96.

Dear Mr. Sikes:

I am responding to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated August 26, 2011, in which you request a list of invitees and attendees for the April 24, 1994 CNO change of command ceremony. Your request was received by this office on October 14, 2011 and assigned the case number NHHHC2012F100002.

In processing your request, my staff searched the immediate office files of the Chief of Naval Operations and the Vice Chief of Naval Operations covering 1994, as well as our personal papers holdings and the Chief of Naval Operations chronology file, but was unable to locate any information regarding the attendees at this ceremony. If you believe that an adequate search was not conducted, you may consider this an adverse determination of your request that may be appealed, in writing, to:

Judge Advocate General of the Navy (Code 14)
1322 Patterson Avenue SE, Suite 3000
Washington Navy Yard, DC 20374-5066

Your appeal must be postmarked within 60 calendar days from the date of this letter to be considered. Dear Sir:

Regarding my FOIA request in Reference (1), please consider this an appeal from the adverse determination set forth in Reference (4).

The requested material, as identified in Reference (1), consists of "a complete list of all invitees and attendees for the April 24, 1994 CNO change of command ceremony, including individuals, their spouses, and the invitees' guests." In fact, the correct date of that investiture was April 23, 1994, not April 24. Reference (1) was off by one day, in a context that appears unlikely to have given rise to any actual misunderstanding. In future searches and proceedings please use the correct date, and accept my apologies for the one-day error.

The following is offered by way of clarification of "the requested material." Simply stated, what is requested is the guest list (i.e. list of persons invited) for the April 23, 1994 ceremony. Any further qualifiers of this request, heretofore stated (or stated below, or otherwise indicated), are not to be used as a basis for a determination of "unable to locate." What is requested is simply a list, as comprehensive as can reasonably be found among the Navy's records, of persons who were invited to attend the change of change of command ceremony held at the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis on April 23, 1994 - - the ceremony at which ADM Boorda succeeded ADM Kelso as Chief of Naval Operations.

That list almost surely exists in the Navy's files, and should be readily findable. It is probably at (or findable through) the Office of the Chief of Naval Operations or the Vice Chief of Naval Operations. I expect to explore every successive avenue under the Freedom of Information Act to obtain a copy, beginning with this appeal. I would certainly prefer to avoid any later stages, as they would incur the expense of deposing multiple (present and past) protocol officers in those offices.

It would simplify matters for all parties if, following receipt of this appeal, the present-day protocol officer supporting the CNO in the Pentagon (who answers to ADM Greenert, who was sworn in as CNO less than three months ago; and, if necessary, his predecessor(s), who answered to ADM Roughead, et al) were questioned about the whereabouts of the succession of volumes of Change of Command books (which were, and quite possibly still are, stored together), and if necessary given a copy of this letter to assist in finding the requested materials.

Each time one CNO succeeds another, an additional volume of the Change of Command book is assembled in the CNO's Office. That volume contains, inter alia, general guidelines on the conduct of such a ceremony, specifics of the site of the particular ceremony in question, traffic control measures, VIP seating arrangements, security measures, the guest list (including answers received to the RSVP request, to the extent answers were received), and "lessons learned" that would benefit the planning of future ceremonies of this type.

This succession of volumes comprising the Change of Command books contains valuable information for future use. Collectively, they are the repository of decades of Navy tradition and precedent. The Navy has not thrown these books away. Pursuant to this appeal, an inquiry made to the present and past protocol officers should disclose the whereabouts of this succession of volumes, and the whereabouts of the volume associated with the 1994 ceremony in particular. Since April 23, 1994 only six men have held the job of CNO, including ADM Greenert.

What is requested here is the guest list, excerpted from the volume associated with the April 1994 ceremony. If more than one version of this guest list exists, which seems likely, the version requested is the one with the most-recent RSVP replies, i.e., the version containing the cumulative replies for as late a date as is available. If a copy of the overall list of invitees was retained that includes the actual attendees and their guests (-- in instances where invitees brought guests), that version of the list is what is requested.

The Change of Command volumes have been kept predominantly or entirely in hard copy -- although in recent years electronic versions are likely to exist also. In the time leading up to the April 1994 ceremony the list of persons invited, which comprised several hundred people, was entered into a computer data base, and the RSVP's were tracked on a piece of database management software called "Filemaker Pro," software broadly comparable to EXCEL. In the days leading up to that ceremony, successive computer runs were made with Filemaker Pro, so that the outgoing and incoming CNO's might have access to the cumulative intentions of invitees thru the date of the run in question. Based on RSVP's to date, invitees were classified as Will Attend, Won't Attend, or No Reply Yet.

Accordingly, another place to look for the requested guest list is among the computer discs (or other electronic storage devices) originally created by the Office of the CNO or VCNO in 1994, and originally maintained in Filemaker Pro.

Please contact persons who previously served as protocol officers for the CNO and the VCNO (particularly those who served since April 1994 - - identities available, for example, from the "yellow pages" of the DOD Telephone Directories), and ask them where Change of Command books were normally stored after the change of command ceremonies themselves. Then ask about the Change of Command book for April 1994, in particular - - the occasion when ADM Kelso was succeeded by ADM Boorda. Finally, ask them where the FOIA-requested April 1994 guest list, and software related to that guest list might now be found.

The nature of the adverse determination in Reference (4) was an "unable to locate" report. However, because of the significance of a Change of Command at the level of Chief of Naval Operations, and because of its value as precedent, and for historical purposes, it seems most unlikely that the Navy would discard such information.

Because the adverse determination in Reference (4) was an "unable to locate" report, the essence of my appeal is a request that the Navy continue to search for the requested materials, with the assistance of the foregoing supplemental information.

The additional search requested by this appeal should take into account the above information. It should begin in the Office of the Chief of Naval Operations. If the requested information is not found in the CNO's Office, the search should be pursued at the location(s) suggested by the protocol officers who should be questioned with the benefit of the above description.

If the requested material is not located at the CNO's Office, or at the place his people point to, the search should proceed to the Office of the Vice Chief of Naval Operations.

If, upon inquiry, the requested materials are not found there, or at a location suggested by protocol officer(s), as described above, a copy of this letter should be furnished to the Navy History and Heritage Command, after which a repeat search should take place in the files of the NHHC.

I hope and trust that the foregoing one-day date correction and the above clarifications will not necessitate the re-submission of this FOIA request from scratch. However, if that is incorrect, please let me know promptly so I can proceed to re-file.

Thank you for conducting additional searches, pursuant to this appeal.

Meanwhile, please furnish me with the name of the Navy's official who is responsible for serving as liaison with the public regarding FOIA issues, along with that person's address, email address, and telephone number. Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

Thomas W. Sikes

Dear Mr. Sikes:

SUBJECT: YOUR FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT (FOIA) APPEAL, F12044; DON
CASE NO. 2011F092106

This responds to your FOIA appeal dated December 13, 2011, in which you challenge the Naval History and Heritage Command (NHHC) response to your August 26, 2011, FOIA request for a complete list of all invitees and attendees for the April 24, 1994 Chief of Naval Operations (CNO) change of command ceremony, including individual's family members. Your request was referred to the NHHC by CNO.

Your appeal is a request for a final determination under the FOIA. I grant your appeal for the following reasons.

Your request was submitted to CNO in a letter dated August 26, 2001. CNO referred your request to NHHC and informed you of this action in a letter dated September 26, 2011. Although CNO referred your request to NHHC, they also continued to search within CNO. As a result, they discovered information that is responsive to your request. CNO will process this information for release to you. You retain the right to appeal their response to this office.

As the Secretary of the Navy's designee, I am responsible for this denial of your appeal. You may seek judicial review of this decision. If you have any questions, please contact Major James Valentine, USMC, at (202) 685-5476 or, james.d.valentine@navy.mil.

Dear Mr. Sikes:

This is our final response to your August 26, 2011 Freedom of Information request, DON 2011F092106, for the list of invitees and attendees at the CNO Change of Command ceremony on April 24, 1994 at the U.S. Naval Academy. We originally received your request on September 12, 2011 and transferred it to the Naval History and Heritage Command on September 26, 2011 for a direct response to you.

Since the Naval History and Heritage Command was unable to locate responsive documents, they sent you a "no records" response on October 18, 2011. You appealed this adverse determination to the Judge Advocate General (JAG) of the Navy on December 13, 2011. Although your appeal was denied, JAG asked us to continue our search for the 1994 Change of Command information responsive to your request, process this information, and provide appeal rights in the event that any information is withheld.

At the CNO Protocol Office in the Pentagon, we were able to locate the outgoing Admiral Kelso's Standard Operating Procedures and Lessons Learned notebook from the 1994 Change of Command Ceremony which contained a chapter relating to invitations, invitees and responses.

We have determined that one document, a 42 page list of invitees, is responsive to your request. Upon review of this document, we have determined that certain personally identifiable information, such as the names of individuals that did not hold public facing roles, are exempt from disclosure under 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6), since release of this information would result in a clearly unwarranted invasion of their personal privacy.

All military below flag-level rank were redacted. Foreign military was only redacted if it was clear that the individual was foreign military (e.g., titles of nobility, ranks not used in U.S. Military, etc.). Celebrities with recognizable names were left unredacted. All "Honorable," "Excellency," and similar strong honorifics were left unredacted. Guests/family members were redacted unless flag-level, celebrity, etc. We have enclosed a copy of the releasable portions of the requested information.

Under 32 CFR §701.12(a), you may appeal the denial of information withheld on your request by writing to:

Office of the Judge Advocate General
1322 Patterson Ave, SE, Ste 3000
Washington Navy Yard, DC 20374-5066

Your appeal must be received within sixty calendar days from the date of this letter. A copy of your initial request and this denial letter must accompany the appeal. The appeal should be marked "FREEDOM OF INFORMATION APPEAL" both on the envelope and the face of the letter. In order to expedite the appellate process and ensure full consideration of your appeal, your appeal should contain a brief statement of the reasons you believe this decision to be in error.

Fees incurred by this office during the processing of your request are waived in this instance. Should you require further assistance, please contact our FOIA service center at (202) 685-0412. I am the official responsible for the partial denial of your request.

- (2) letter dated September 12, 2011: Ms Robin Patterson, head of the Navy FOIA Policy Office [within the Office of the CNO, per letterhead] to Sikes, acknowledging this FOIA request and assigning Case File Number DON 2011F092106. (Copy enclosed.)
- (3) letter dated September 26, 2011: Ms M. Phyllis Shaw to Sikes, reporting that they [the OPNAV/SECNAV FOIA Policy Office] had referred this FOIA request to the Naval History and Heritage Command. (Copy enclosed.)
- (4) letter dated October 18, 2011: Gregory J. Martin of Naval History and Heritage Command to Sikes, setting forth NHHHC2012F100002 as NHHHC's own case number, reciting certain places searched, reporting "unable to locate," and specifying appeal procedures. (Copy enclosed.)
- (5) letter dated December 13, 2011: Sikes to Navy JAG, clarifying details of the request in Reference (1), and appealing the "unable to locate" denial in Reference (4). This letter requested further search, and indicated that the requested material is "probably at (or findable through) the Office of the Chief of Naval Operations," [particularly the CNO's] protocol officer..." (Copy enclosed.)
- (6) letter dated January 23, 2012: Navy JAG Office (Lattin) to Sikes, saying "CNO... discovered information that is responsive to your request. CNO will process this information for release to you. You retain the right to appeal their response to this office." (Copy enclosed.)
- (7) letter dated February 17, 2012: Ms Robin Patterson, head of the Navy FOIA Policy Office [within the Office of the CNO] to Sikes, saying we have found a 42-page list of the invitees and we have redacted all persons who do not hold public facing roles. The remainder of the list is enclosed. You may appeal the denial of information withheld. (Copy enclosed.)

Dear Sir:

Regarding my FOIA request in Reference (1), clarified slightly in Reference (5), please consider this an appeal from the denial of information withheld, as set forth in Reference (7).

The requested material consists of "a complete list of all invitees and attendees for the April 23, 1994 CNO change of command ceremony." This was the ceremony at which ADM Boorda succeeded ADM Kelso as Chief of Naval Operations.

The requested 42-page list was located within the 1994 volume of the Change of Command book. That list, as redacted, was sent to me as an enclosure with Reference (7). The redactions consisted of deleting slightly more than half of the overall listings, based on a close examination of the first 21 pages as a (presumably representative) sample of the 42 pages.

It is the deletions that are being appealed. In other words, at this stage, using the phrasing of Reference (7), what is being appealed here is "the denial of information withheld."

According to Reference (7), as well as notations on its accompanying 42-page list, the basis for the redactions was the claimed exemption in 5 U.S.C. §552(b)(6). That transmittal letter set forth the view that "release of this information [i.e., names of persons invited] would result in a clearly unwarranted invasion of their personal privacy."

The FOIA exemption at 5 U.S.C. §552(b)(6) provides for exclusion of "personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy."

The event to which 1380 invitations were sent was a large official event held at the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis. Members of the press were invited. Members of the press were expected to attend, and did attend. Photographers worked the scene. (Were the photographers instructed to take pictures only of individuals who held public-facing roles?) Extensive press coverage ensued.

Under these circumstances, it seems difficult to understand how any invitees would have a reasonable expectation of privacy concerning this list, a list that contains names but not addresses.

Your office is hereby requested to reconsider the denial of the information withheld, and to send me the complete list in unredacted form. Waiver of fees is likewise requested; this much is consistent with the Navy's position in the final paragraph of Reference (7).

In the alternative, please explain the rationale of the privacy exemption, 5 U.S.C. §552(b)(6) in the context of invitations to a large official event such as this for which there was extensive press coverage, and please identify any other exemptions the Navy believes might apply here.

Thanks for your assistance.

Respectfully submitted,

Thomas W. Sikes

Looks like bug has dug in to stay. Doc prescribed Leviquin- that's normally a good germbuster.

I reviewed the book early this morning before being pulled into meetings. I copied the pages that I proposed to release in their entirety and in the staff meeting I was vetoed. So I will redact at the supervisor's insistence (and then you can appeal again if necessary to get the names you are looking for)

Public facing names will be released. Guest list is 42 pages long. Plus I copied some administrative pages showing how many invitations were sent out, how many responded, percentages & recommendations from the "lessons learned" sections.

There were no floppy disks, no hard disks, no CDs. Just an administrative tool book.

I personally feel that the list of guests was already "thoughtfully" placed with no chance of privacy invasion. There is ONLY the list of names (with any titles that may have applied. No street addresses, no states, no company names, no phone #s)

So all I need to do is redact out the names that we determine are NOT public facing individuals.

I am "hoping" I can crank this out today. Have to convert the 42 pages to an appropriate pdf file first where it will accept electronic redaction without an issue. Otherwise I will have to revert to the old tape out method.

Progress...yes.... but not all good news.

Dear FOIA Officer:

Under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. subsection 552, I am requesting access to excerpts from the April 1994 volume of the CNO Change of Command Book, excerpts dealing with matters pertaining to the press and photographers as they relate to those events.

By way of background: On April 23, 1994 there occurred at the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, a CNO change of command ceremony wherein ADM Frank Kelso was relieved of command as Chief of Naval Operations and ADM Mike Boorda was sworn in as his successor. In connection with this ceremony and the immediately-following events a "Change of Command" Book was assembled under the direction of protocol officers.

That same April 1994 Change of Command Book was used by FOIA people in your immediate office in the last few days to respond to a prior FOIA request from me: Case File Number DON2011F092106.

Now, in this (separate) follow-on FOIA request, what is requested is a photocopy of the portion of that Change of Command Book pertaining to the role of the press and photographers in that ceremony and the immediately-following events.

Please supply the records without informing me of the cost if fees do not exceed $50. I agree to pay those fees, up to $50. (The "search phase" has already been accomplished, as explained in the above paragraph and in the transmitting email associated with this FOIA request.)

If you deny all or any part of this request, please cite each specific exemption you think justifies your refusal to release the information, and notify me of appeal procedures available under law.

If you have any questions about handling this request, feel free to email me at: tom_sikes@hotmail.com.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Sikes:

This is our final response to your February 27, 2012 Freedom of Information request, DON 2012F020720, for any excerpts relating to the press and photographers at the CNO Change of Command ceremony in 1994 at the U.S. Naval Academy.

From the CNO Protocol Office in the Pentagon, we were able to borrow the outgoing Admiral Kelso's Standard Operating Procedures and Lessons Learned notebook from the 1994 Change of Command Ceremony which contained a chapter called Media Plans.

We have determined that two documents are responsive to your request, both the internal and external media plans. Upon review of this document, we have determined that certain personally identifiable information, such as the names of military individuals in the media or individuals involved in the media plan process, that did not hold public facing roles, are exempt from disclosure under 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6), since release of this information would result in a clearly unwarranted invasion of their personal privacy. Any information that was withheld is clearly indicated by redaction boxes.

We have enclosed copies of the releasable portions of the documents that are responsive to your request.

Under 32 CFR §701.12(a), you may appeal the denial of information withheld on your request by writing to:

Office of the Judge Advocate General
1322 Patterson Ave, SE, Ste 3000
Washington Navy Yard, DC 20374-5066

Your appeal must be received within sixty calendar days from the date of this letter. A copy of your initial request and this denial letter must accompany the appeal. The appeal should be marked "FREEDOM OF INFORMATION APPEAL" both on the envelope and the face of the letter. In order to expedite the appellate process and ensure full consideration of your appeal, your appeal should contain a brief statement of the reasons you believe this decision to be in error.

Fees for providing this document are less than $15.00 and are not being charged in accordance with 32 CFR $286.28(d)(2). Should you require further assistance, please contact our FOIA service center at (202) 685-0412. I am the official responsible for the partial denial of your request.

Dear Mr. Sikes:

SUBJECT: YOUR FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT (FOIA) APPEAL OUR CASE
FILE # F12087

This responds to your letter dated February 25, 2012. You challenged the partial denial of your FOIA request by the Office of the Chief of Naval Operations ("DNS-36") in response to your August 26, 2011 FOIA request.

Your appeal is a request for a final determination under the FOIA. I deny your appeal for the following reasons.

Under FOIA Exemption (b) (6), government agencies must withhold personal information if release would be a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, unless that privacy interest is outweighed by the public's interest. In this case, I find that the personal privacy interests of the individuals named in the responsive documents outweigh any public interest in disclosure since the release of the requested information will not shed any light on the agency's performance of its statutory duties or significantly contribute to the public's understanding of the operations or activities of the government. Therefore, DNS-36 properly redacted the identities of the personnel named in these documents.

As the Secretary of the Navy's designee, I am responsible for this administrative decision. You may seek judicial review of this decision. My point of contact is Major James Valentine, USMC, who may be reached at: james.d.valentine@navy.mil, or: 202-685-5476.

Sincerely,

Mr Sikes:

Off the top of my head I said August for NCIS's relocation because I remember it was summertime and I remember fussing at the person who was responsible for updating the website (at that time) to change NCIS's address.

As I read your log of calls to NCIS, I realized that it was the one they received back in September that you were still waiting for the final determination/ response. If the items are covered under a FOIA exemption, NCIS should send you a letter explaining that (no matter which part of NCIS is handling the search). (They cannot claim they lost that one!!!) I have to leave it to Ms. Robin Patterson to contact NCIS and get those issues resolved. She is the Navy liaison in that respect. You already have her phone number 202-685-0412.

Our Fax is 202-685-6580 Our functional email is DONFOIA-PA@navy.mil (multiple people keep a check on that account).

In the meantime, even before any decision is made by JAG, I will continue to search for the Change of Command documents, unless Ms. Patterson directs me otherwise.

Dear Mr. Sikes:

This further responds to your Freedom of Information Act request seeking access to unredacted copies of specific evidence seized in connection with case 16May96-DCWA-0278-7HRR.

We are unable to process your request as items seized in the course of an investigation and entered into an evidence custody locker are not agency records and as such cannot be processed under the Freedom of Information Act.

As the official responsible for the denial of your request, I am advising you of your right to appeal this determination. Your appeal must be postmarked within 60 calendar days from the date of this letter. An appeal should be addressed to the Secretary of the Navy's designee: Office of the Judge Advocate General, (Code 14), 1322 Patterson Avenue, S.E., Suite 3000, Washington Navy Yard, D.C. 20374-5066. The envelope and letter should bear the annotations "FOIA Appeal." A copy of your original request and this denial letter must accompany your appeal.

There are no assessable fees associated with the processing of your request.

Sincerely,

ALEX DONART

I am scheduled for next Tuesday. I am only allowed 24 hours per week per contract. I am already 10 minutes past my 24 hour mark. Budget cuts budget cuts!

Everyone in the office is on the lookout for the courier package.

Your appeal is being used as an example in a FOIA working group that is reviewing our processes and your case was singled out as most interesting so far in FY12 for the DON FOIA Requester Service Center.

If that book isn't here by WED next week (when the team comes to shadow us) a certain office is going to look real bad (and it isn't us)!

- (1) letter dated August 26, 2011 requesting certain written materials: Sikes to Naval Criminal Investigative Service (NCIS), FOIA Requester Service Center, Quantico; copy enclosed (3 pp)
- (2) first page of the above FOIA, supplemented per Quantico's request, and faxed by Sikes to Quantico on September 28, 2011; copy enclosed (1 p)
- (3) denial letter dated January 4, 2012 from LT Alex Donart, NCIS FOIA Officer, Quantico, to Tom Sikes, declining to process this FOIA request for reason stated; copy enclosed (1 p)

Dear Sir/Madam:

Regarding my FOIA request in Reference (1), supplemented in Reference (2) pursuant to NCIS request, please consider this an appeal from the denial letter, Reference (3).

By way of review, as identified in Reference (1) the requested material consists of:

"Several memorandum notes, business cards, laminated cards containing telephone numbers, and a six page handwritten document which appear to be notes relating to official business" obtained from the back seat area of the Chief of Naval Operations' official vehicle on May 16, 1996. These items "were seized and entered into the NCISFO evidence custody locker under NCIS log #148-96."

Also requested is "exhibit (36)" (which is the result of the [NCIS] vehicle inventory, if different from the above), as that exhibit is designated in paragraph 18 of NCIS (Interim) Report of Investigation dated July 9, 1996: Control: 16MAY96-DCWA-0278-7HRR.

In Reference (3), the denial letter, LT Donart states "... items seized in the course of an investigation and entered into an evidence custody locker are not agency records and as such cannot be processed" under the Freedom of Information Act.

This appeal requests that JAG Headquarters, as addressee, reverse this position and direct that the subject materials be furnished to the requester.

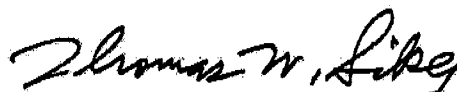

On the other hand, if the Navy remains unwilling to release the requested materials, then this appeal asks that you please identify and furnish any court decision(s) (and/or any statutory citation(s), or other authority) that you believe supports the Navy's denial of this FOIA request, whether such denial is on the grounds stated in Reference (1), or otherwise.

It would be mutually advantageous, if you can be more specific than Reference (3) concerning the basis for the exemption(s) claimed.

In furnishing that information, as an authority (or a supplement) you might choose to make reference to specific pages in one or more recognized reference works, one of which is "Litigation Under the Federal open Government Law 2010" by Harry A. Hammitt, et al.

Thank you for your assistance regarding this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Mr. Thomas W. Sikes

Dear Mr. Sikes:

SUBJECT: FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT (FOIA) APPEAL, F12059

This responds to your letter dated January 6, 2012, in which you appealed the denial of your FOIA request for evidence obtained by the Naval Criminal Investigative Service (NCIS) during an investigation at the Washington Navy Yard on May 16, 1996. Your appeal challenges NCIS' determination that these items are not agency records and cannot be released under FOIA.

Your appeal is a request for a final determination under the FOIA. For the following reasons, I deny your appeal.

You have requested "access to several memorandum notes, business cards, laminated cards containing telephone numbers, and a six page handwritten document which appears to be notes relating to official business" that were obtained from the back seat area of the Chief of Naval Operations' (CNO) vehicle on May 16, 1996. You have also requested access to "exhibit 36," which was logged as part of the vehicle inventory, if it is different from the requested material above.

While agency records are subject to release under FOIA, personal records, although physically maintained by a federal agency, are not subject to the FOIA. See, e.g., Consumer Fed'n of Am. V. USDA, 455 F.3d at 288-93 (D.C. Cir. 1988); Bureau of Nat'l Affairs, Inc. v. DOJ, 742 F.2d 1484, 1489-96 (D.C. Cir. 1984). In determining whether a record is a personal record, an agency should examine the totality of the circumstances surrounding the creation, maintenance, and use of the record. Bureau of Nat'l Affairs, 742 F.2d at 1492. The agency should consider the record's creation, location/possession, control, and use when determining whether it is a personal or agency record. Consumer Fed'n of Am., 455 F.3d at 287-88. The records you requested, including Exhibit 36, were personal notes/items that were created or maintained by the CNO. They remained solely in his possession and were not used by the agency in an official capacity. As a result, I have concluded that NCIS correctly determined that the requested items are not agency records.

As the Secretary of the Navy's designee, I am responsible for this denial of your appeal. You may also seek judicial review of this determination. Should you have any questions or concerns, please contact Major James Valentine at 202-685-5476 or james.d.valentine@navy.mil.

Sincerely,

S. D. SCHROCK
